“Just want to say thanks, for encouraging us to stay grounded & centered in the Lord Jesus Christ everyday, whether in great times or during a world crisis. This is the message the world & the church desperately needs to hear. Will keep praying for the continuation of ‘Let’s Talk About Jesus’ daily.”

I pray that you can continue this teaching that even I can understand. Bless you.”

“In times like this it is all the more grounding and comforting to know that Jesus is our Rock and our Anchor, that the doubts of this world mean so little compared to the surety we have in Christ. I hope more and more people find your ministry as a path to finding this hope in Him.”

Chet, Brimfield MA

“My mother has been a long time listener. Your recordings have been a lifeline for her for many years. I’ve been meaning to write this letter for some time... I’m not a religious person, because how religion is used as a tool of control by political elites and it turns me off... that is until I hear you sir. You give me hope, since you continue to inspire and breath life into my mother’s soul through your positive spread of the teachings of Christ. Please keep going.”

Daniel, email

“Thank you for your prayers for me & all health-care workers. We had a good summer at the hospital but now they are setting up for covid patients & we are all taking turns working in those units. Thankfully my covid tests have been negative. I have complete trust in my Lord & I’m not afraid. I have peace and joy in the midst of this rising storm (pandemic). We haven’t had church services since early March. I’m so thankful for LTAJ services everyday & I love to listen. What a blessing!”

“During a Covid quarantine meditation, it came to me that you provide an ‘essential service’ I believe that you qualify as a ‘healthcare worker’ in every sense, since you minister to people’s spiritual, physical, and psychological well-being. And you do it all in the service of The Great Physician, Who is “...not willing for any to perish...”

Elliot, Suffern NY

“During these unsettling times, we thank you for keeping us ‘Christ-centered.’ When we sit and are still in prayer - we know we are in the presence of our God - and we feel that peace that surpasses all understanding! Our God will see us through this time. WE will continue to thank God for all His blessings.”

“Thank you for always keeping your eyes and messages on Jesus!! He, our Lord, our Jesus, is a blessed balm to the emotional chaotic feel some of these days have presented. I am resting in His arms despite the often raucous rate unfortunate news breaks. I am informed but not consumed by the daily tragedies, thanks to our kind Lord’s enveloping love and Wayne’s encouraging words to focus our eyes upon Jesus - to see this world through the eyes of Christ’s wisdom and compassion.”
